4.7. No information will be provided on the result of the entries via telephone.

5. SELECTION PROCESS

The selection will be done in three stages, with grades from 0 (zero) to 10 (ten) in each.

5.1. The first stage (single elimination): evaluation of the research project.

5.1.1. The following criteria will be observed:

- a. adequacy of the theme to the concentration area of PPGH-UDESC (History of the Present Time) and the chosen research line;
- b. theoretical articulation;
- c. availability of sources;
- d. feasibility of execution in 24 (twenty-four) months for the Masters, and in 48 (forty-eight) months for the Doctorate;
- e. writing skills;
- f. advisor's availability in PPGH.

5.1.2. At this stage, the candidate with the minimum grade of 7.0 (seven) will be considered approved.

5.1.3. The list of approved candidates in the first stage will be published on the website on May 3rd, 2021 after 6 p.m., and no information is to be provided by phone.

5.2. The second stage (single elimination): evaluation of the Descriptive Memorial.

5.2.1. The following criteria will be observed:

- a. the pertinence of justification of the choice of the program, theme and object of interest;
- b. consistency when linking the academic trajectory with the theme chosen for the research;
- c. quality of writing;
- d. advisor's availability in PPGH.

5.2.2. At this stage, the candidate with the minimum grade of 7.0 (seven) will be considered approved.

5.2.3. The list of approved candidates in the second stage will be published on the website on June 11th, 2021 after 6 p.m., and no information is to be provided by phone.

5.3. The third stage (qualifying interview): consists essentially in the defense of the research project, also focusing on the topics of the memorial and the curriculum, so that the Selection Committee can evaluate:

- a. mastery of the themes and problems involved in the proposed research project;
- b. ability to articulate the project to the problems of the History of the Present Time and the research line to which it was proposed;
- c. relationship between the project and the applicant's professional and academic experience;
- d. effective availability of time for postgraduate dedication and the candidate's ability to complete the course within regimental deadlines;

f. consistency and relevance of the answers to the Committee's questions.

5.3.1. The third stage will be held between June 21st-25th, 2021, on-line through Microsoft Teams tool, at a link previously sent to candidates by the Selection Committee. It will be necessary that the candidates confirm that they received the information in the following 24 hours.

5.3.2. Defense times will be announced on June 14th, 2021 after 6 p.m., and no information is to be provided by phone.

5.3.3. The third stage will be held with a camera turned on showing the candidate, making possible his/her identification during the oral test and the virtual interview.

5.3.3.1. PPGH is not responsible for technical issues during the virtual interview that arises from the applicant's end that may hinder or compromise the interview. The equipment and media necessary for virtual communication, as well as its proper functioning, are the sole responsibility of the applicant.

5.3.3.2. In case of technical problems occurring during the interview, this stage can be rescheduled by the Selection Committee, if possible, later on the same day.

5.3.4. Other PPGH faculty may be present during the defense of the research project, but only as listeners.

5.4. The list of candidates selected for admission to the PPGH student body - classes of 2019 will be published on the Program website (<https://www.udesc.br/faed/ppgh/ingresso/regulares>), on June 26th, 2020, after 6 p.m., and no information is to be provided by phone.
